

House Resolution No. 2043

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have admirably dedicated their time, knowledge, skills, and energy to helping each generation of students prepare for future roles as societal leaders; and

Whereas, Carol Ann Wilson McManaman of Jackson has developed and maintained an exemplary reputation as a teacher who first entered the field of education in 1971 at Titus School in Mounds, Illinois; and

Whereas, working since 2002 as a sixth-grade teacher at Central Middle School in the Cape Girardeau School District, Carol McManaman will bring her educational labors to a close in retirement after thirty-two years of outstanding service; and

Whereas, in her more than three decades as a teacher, Carol McManaman guided her students in beautiful locales as Kansas City and Florida before moving to Cape Girardeau in 1978 to work in the Behavioral Disorders Classroom for twelve years and at Clippard Elementary for twelve years; and

Whereas, Carol McManaman prepared for her educational leadership endeavors by graduating from Neelyville High School in 1968, attending Three Rivers Junior College, graduating from Southeast Missouri State University in 1971 with a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary and special education, and completing a Master of Education degree in special education from the University of South Alabama in 1978; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of Ken McManaman, Carol McManaman is justifiably proud to be known as the loving mother of Evan John McManaman, Kinsey Bridget McManaman, and Kierin Rose McManaman:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, joint unanimously to applaud the long, productive educational career engaged in by Carol McManaman and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Carol Ann Wilson McManaman of Jackson, Missouri.
